MARTIN COLLEGE

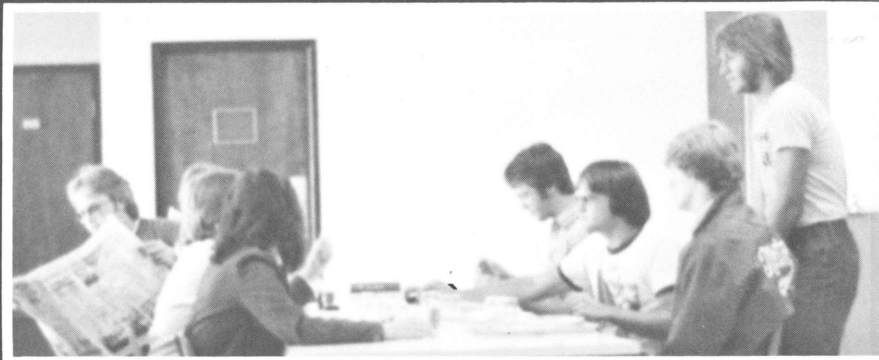

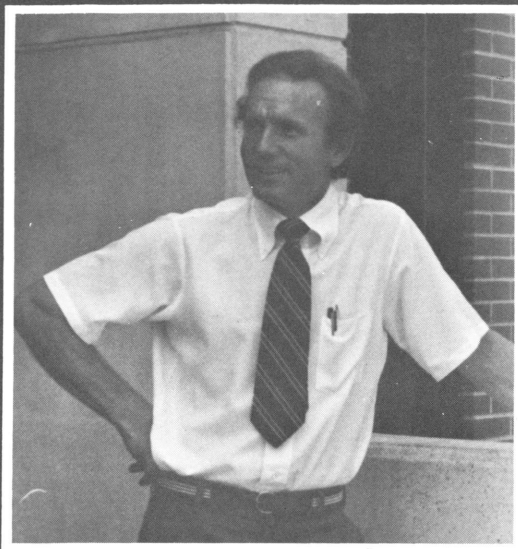

Looking into the mirror of the past we can see Martin College beginning to grow into the institution it is today. Martin College was first started in 1870 as a female college with a graduating class of four. It became coeducational in 1938 with a total of 115 students. Today Martin has an enrollment of over 240 students and a faculty and staff of 50.

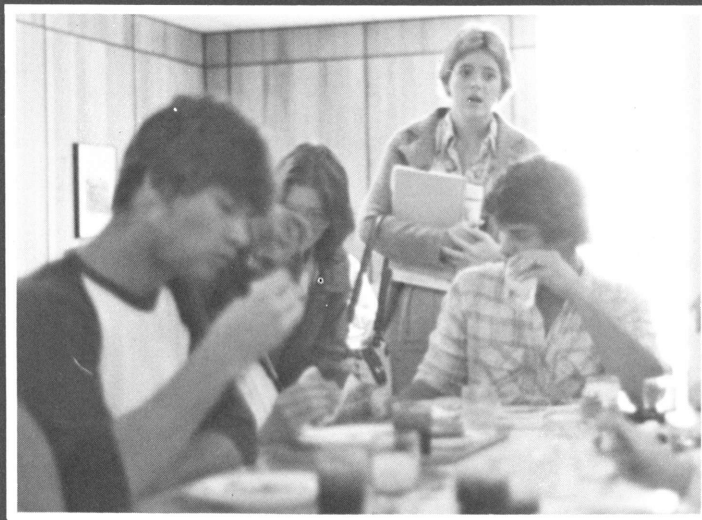

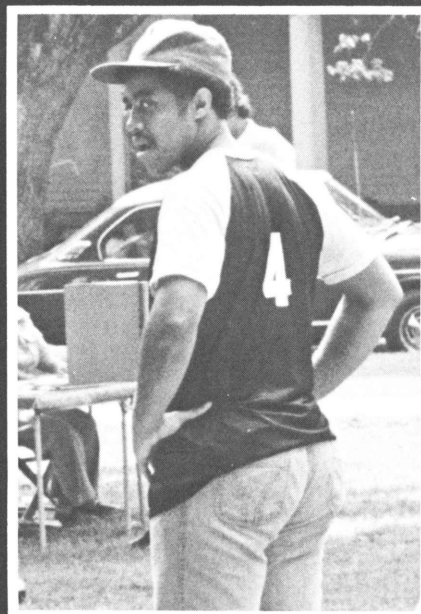

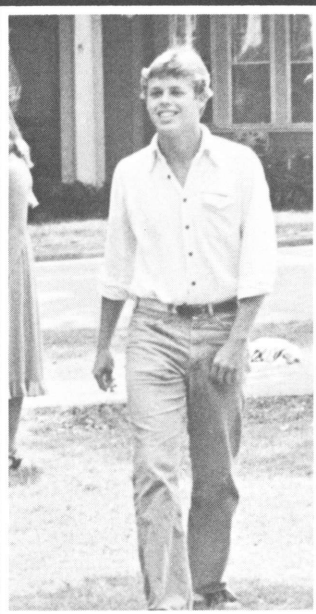

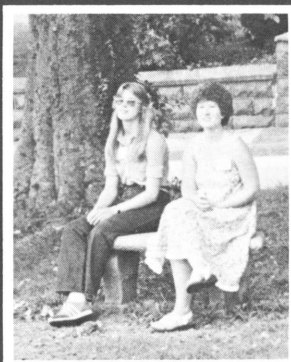

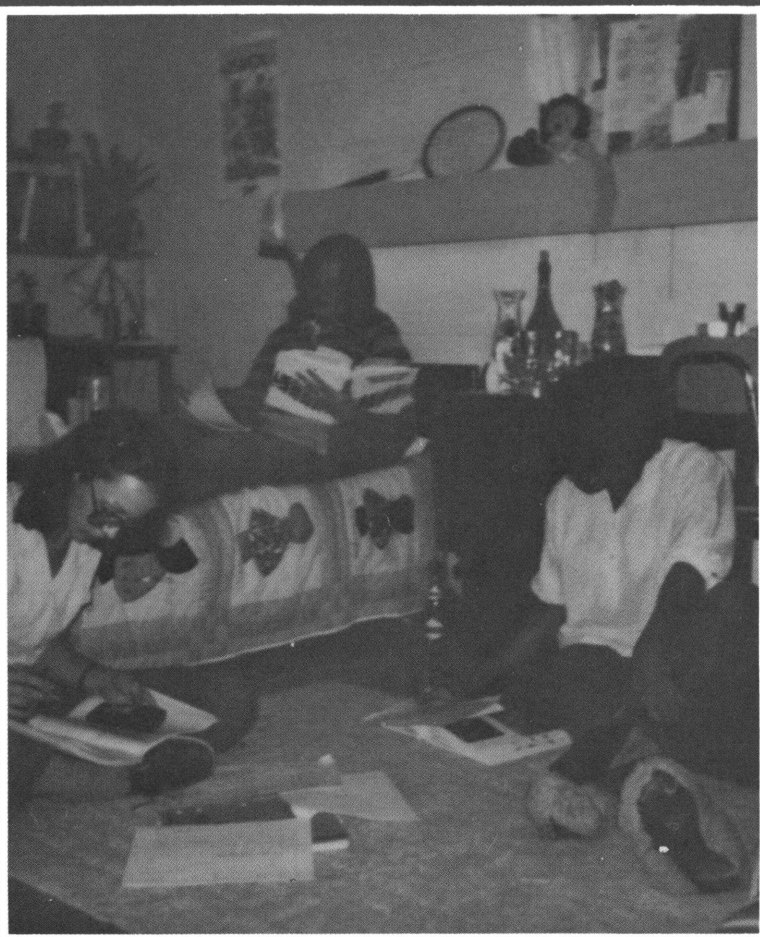

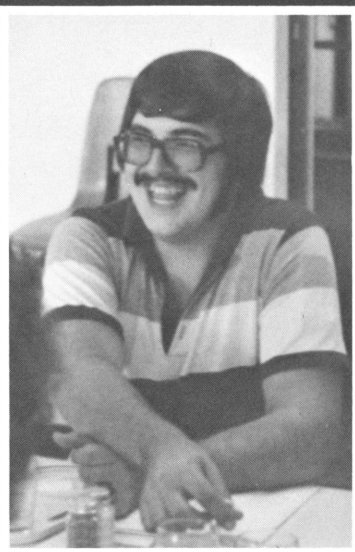

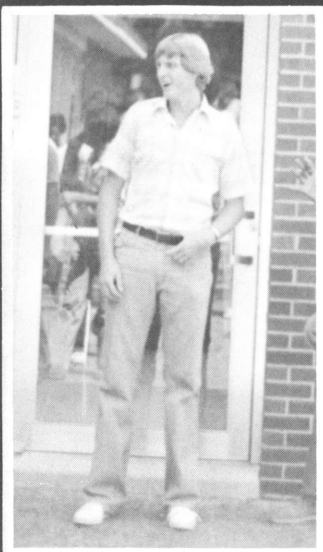

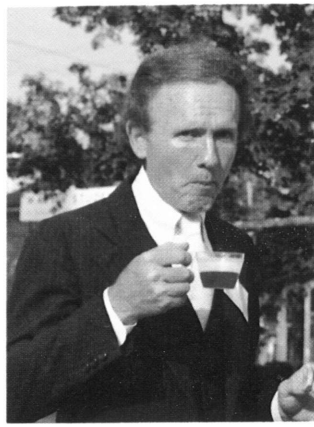

In years to come the Martin campus will be full of new faces known only by the window of the future. As we look through the glass, students can be seen walking across the campus green, as the squirrels begin to gather nuts for the winter. Others sit quietly at the gazebo watching the summer pass, the leaves changing, the snow falling and the flowers blooming. But most important, the new faces will carry on the trends of the past and start trends to be carried on in later years.

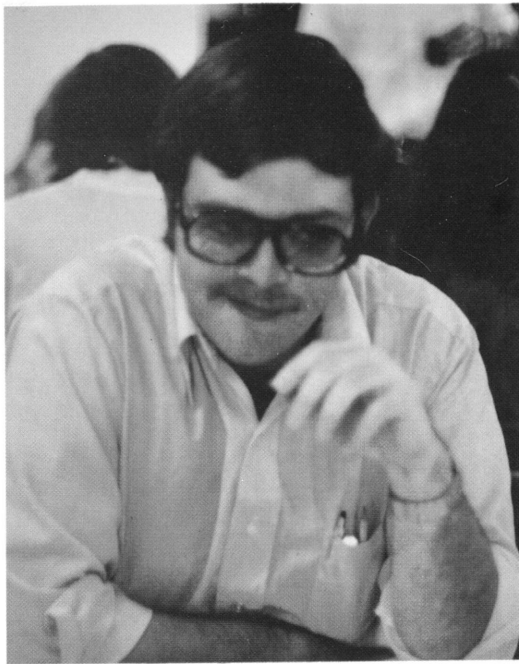

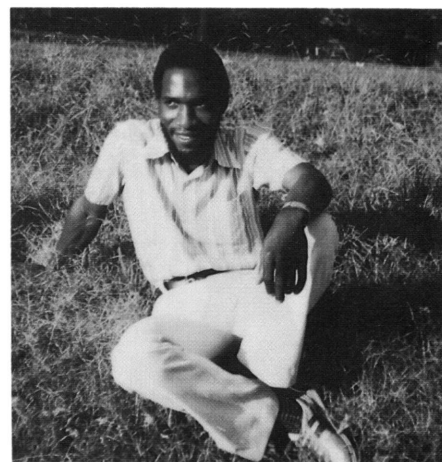

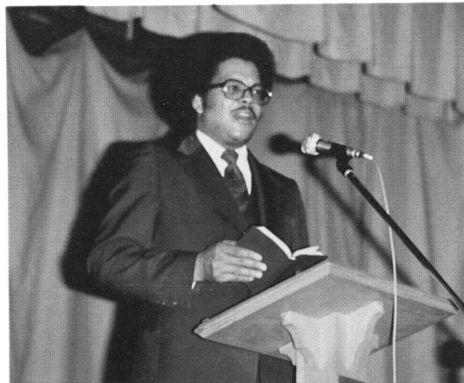

October 16, 1904 . . . Martin Hall, then consisting of offices, classrooms, sleeping apartments, library, was completely destroyed by fire.

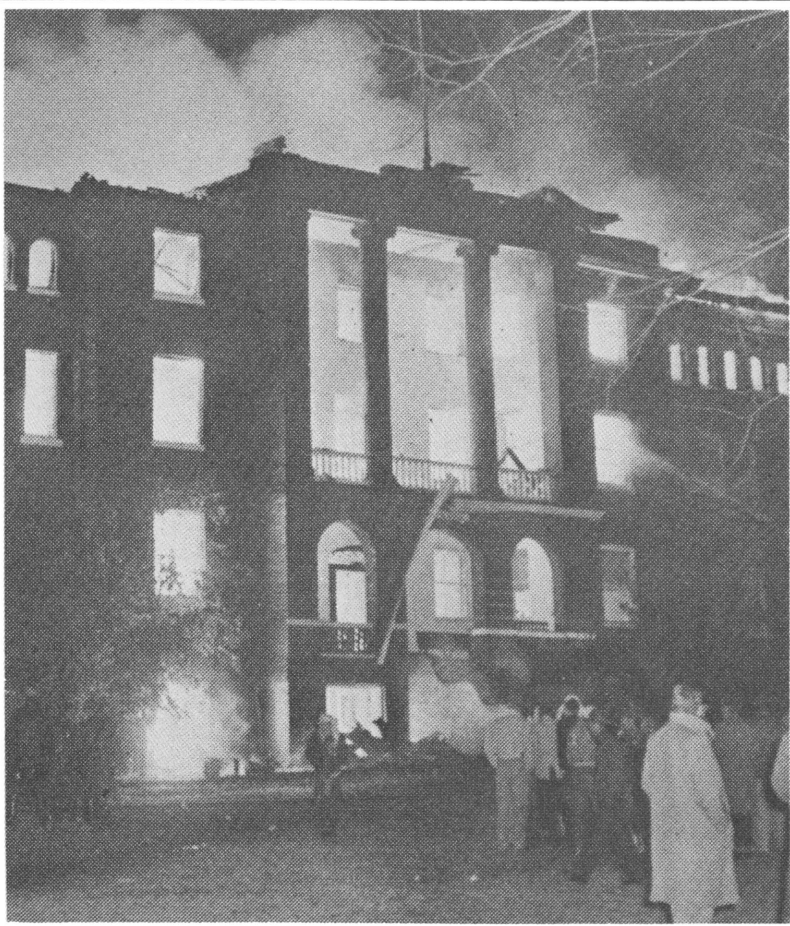

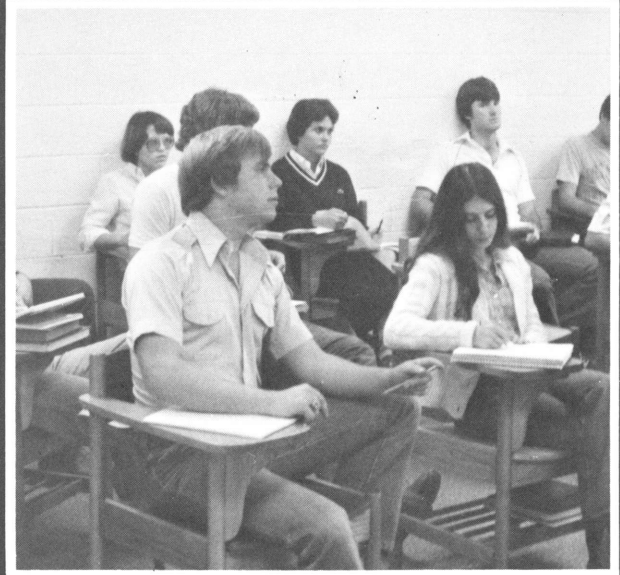

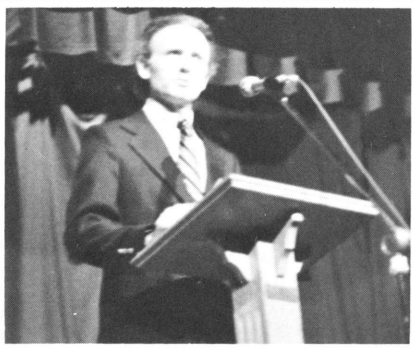

January 31, 1956 . . . Martin Hall was again brought down by fire. Classes were held in the basement of the First Methodist Church and administrative offices were opened in the lobby of the men's dorm.

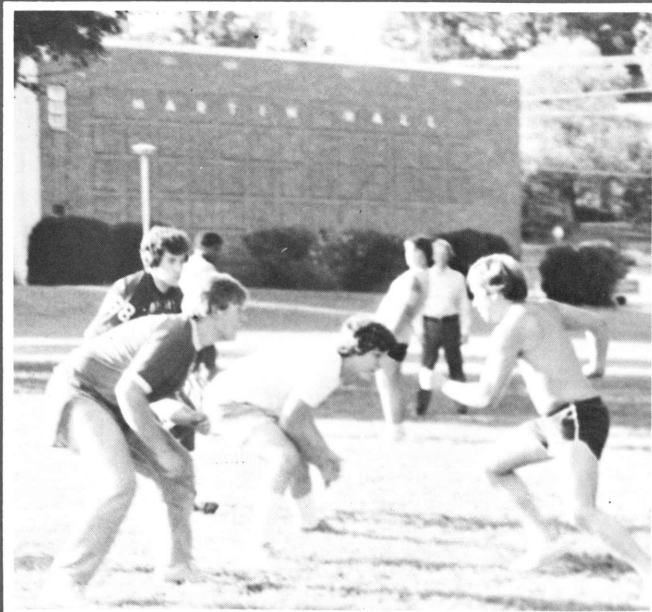

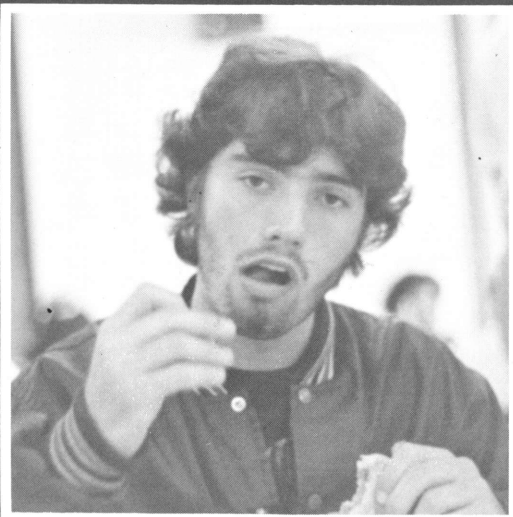

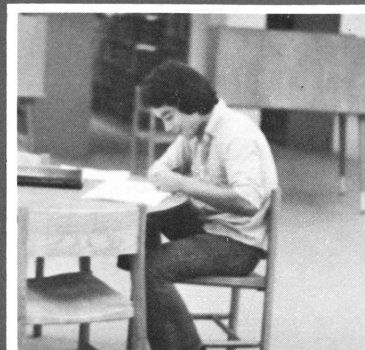

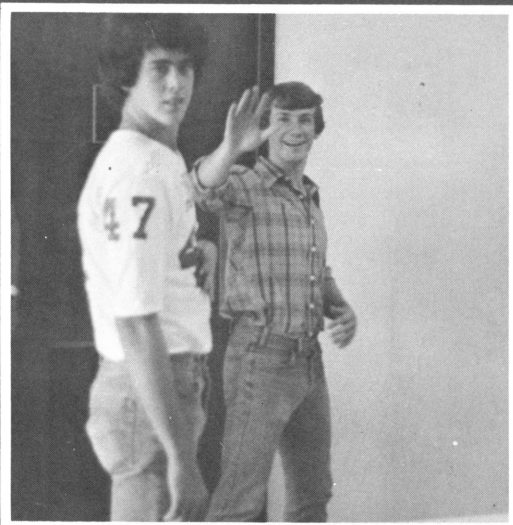

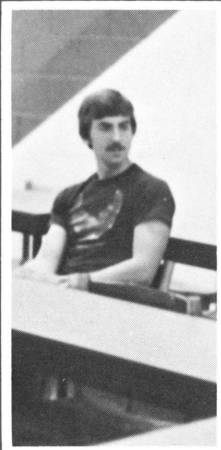

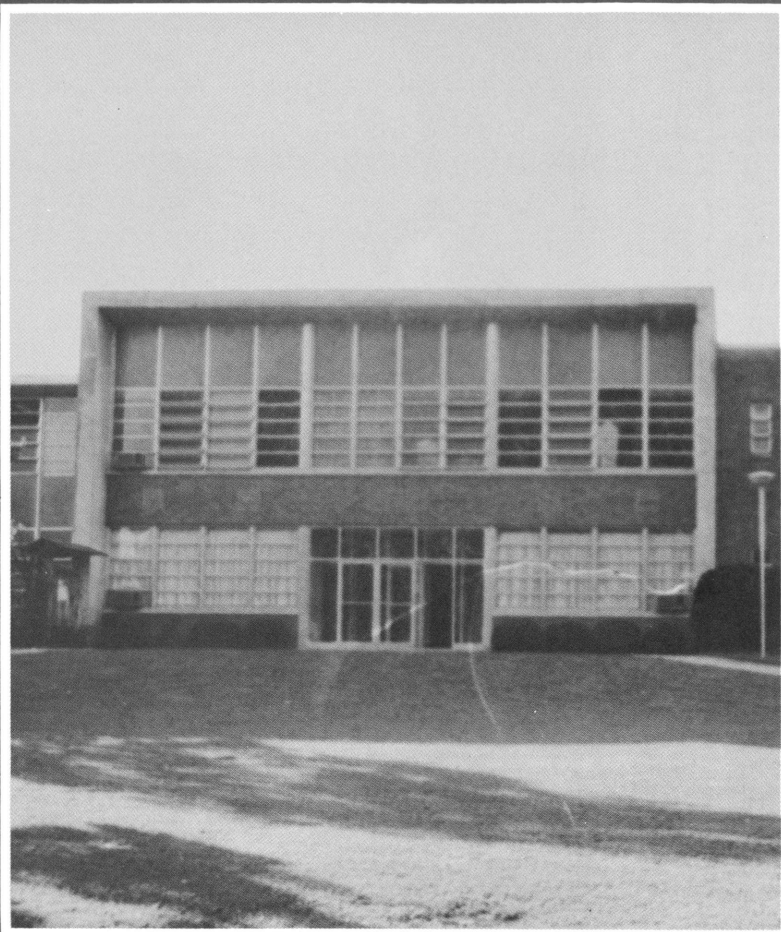

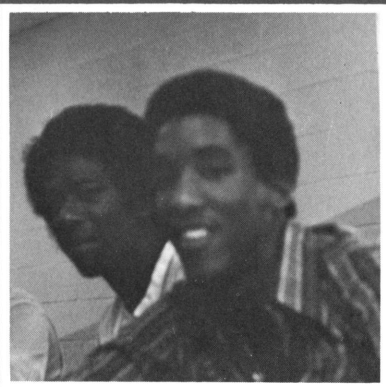

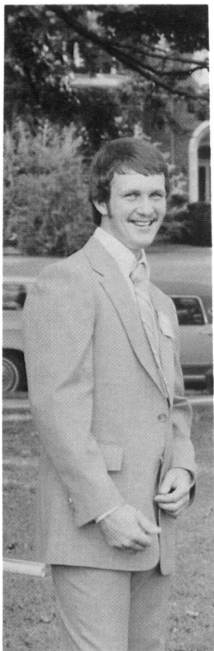

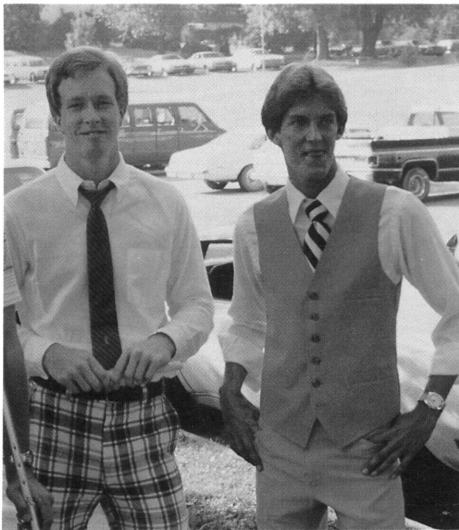

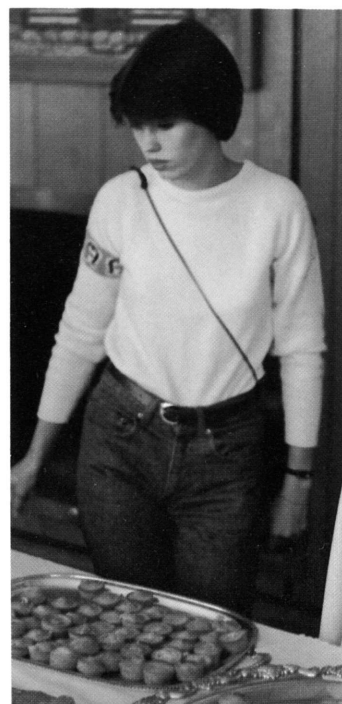

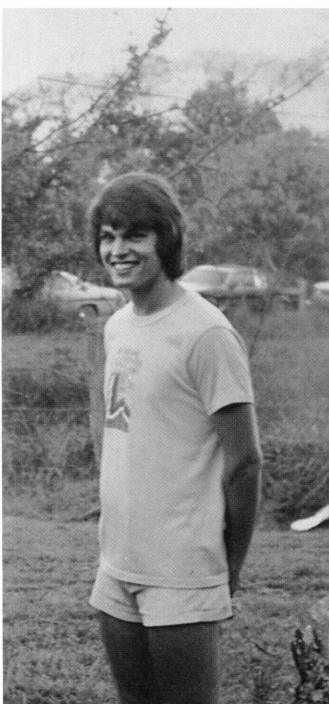

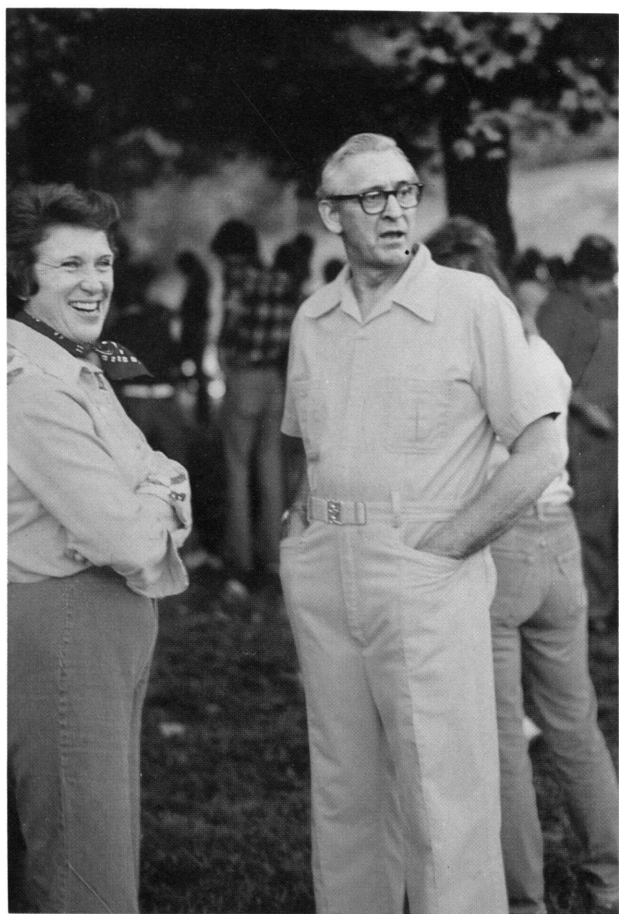

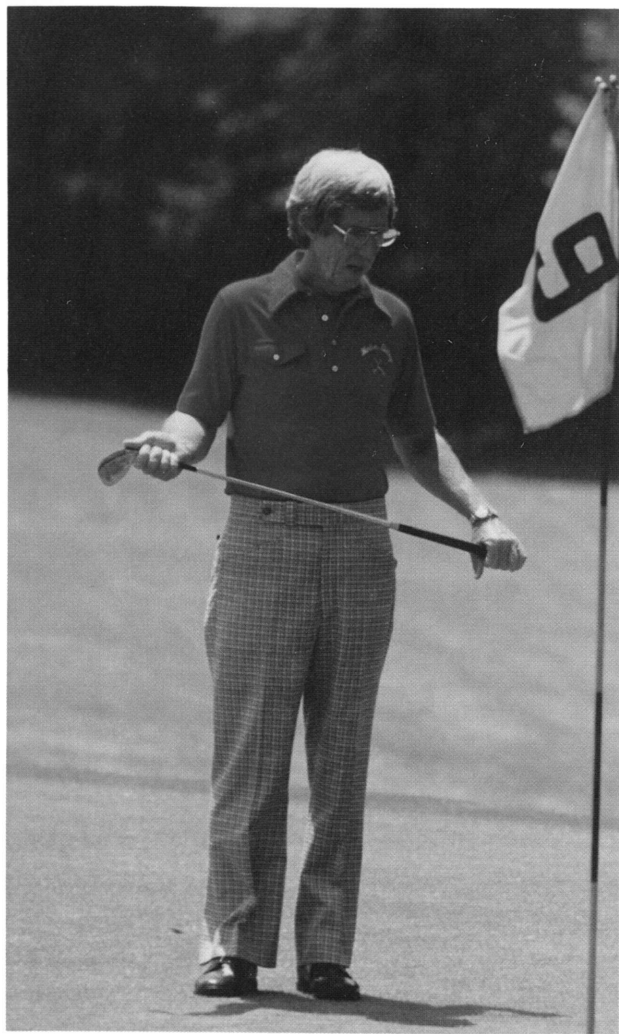

In 1958, the present Martin Hall was opened, containing administrative offices, auditorium, music, drama, and home economics departments. Remembering two previous destructions of Martin Hall, we look toward a future containing the new Martin Hall as the center of administrative and student activity.

ACTIVITIES

Boo-Out

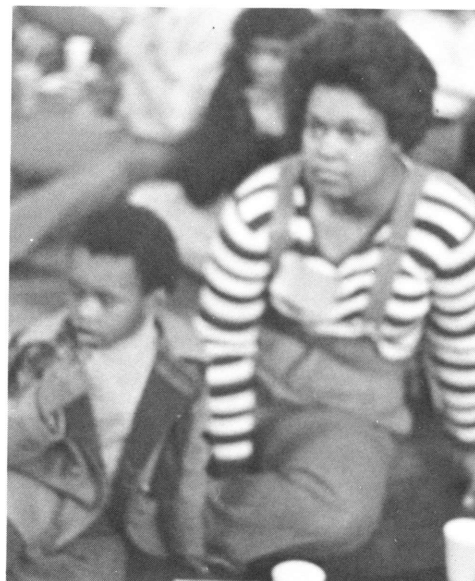

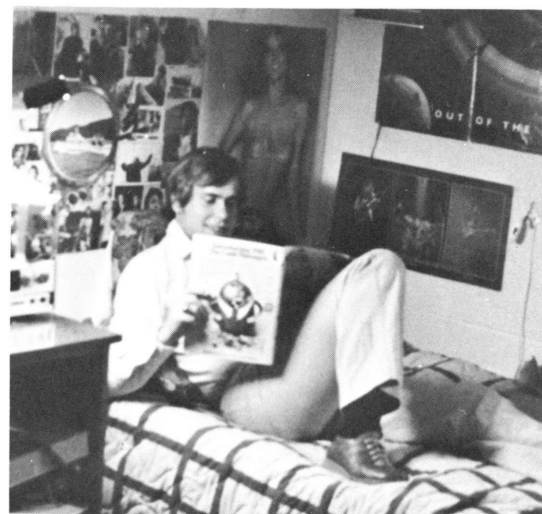

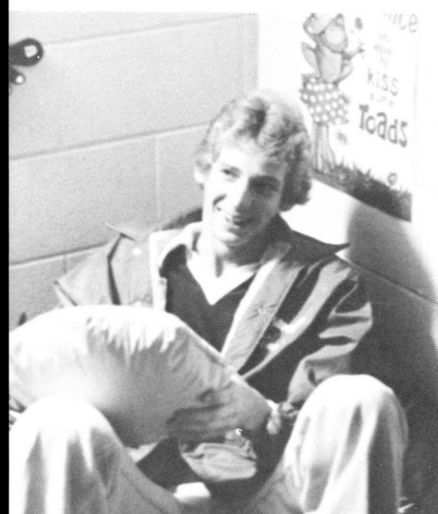

The largest service project which the SCA sponsors is their Christmas party for the children in the Giles County Headstart Program. This traditional program is designed to share the joy of the birth of our Savior with children who otherwise might not have a merry Christmas. Martin students give freely of their time and purchase gifts for these young people, receiving nothing in return and expecting only to share a portion of these children's lives.

Concert Series

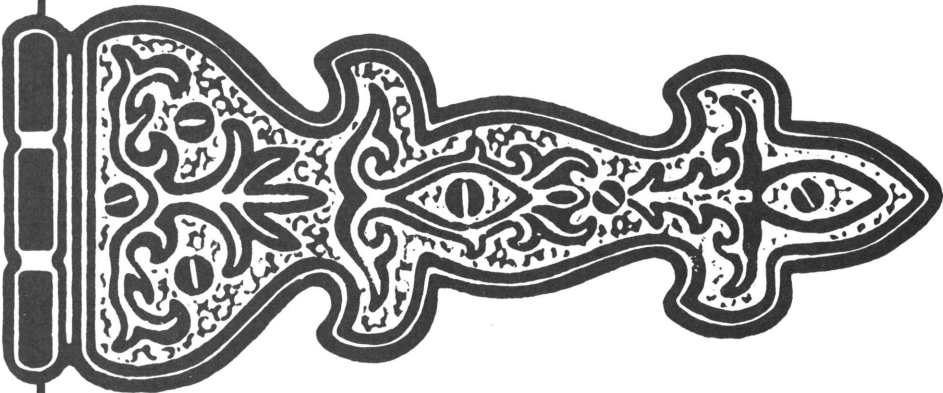

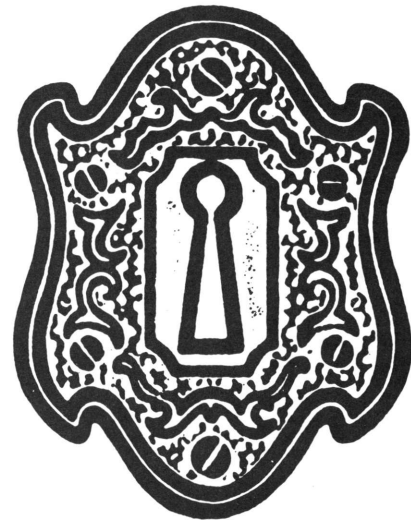

Martin College's concert series was named in 1978 in honor of the late Mrs. Della Clayton Lee, a longtime friend of Martin College through her service on the Board of Trustees and as a patron of the arts. The series, created nine years ago as a means of cultural appreciation for the campus and community is presented at Martin Hall.

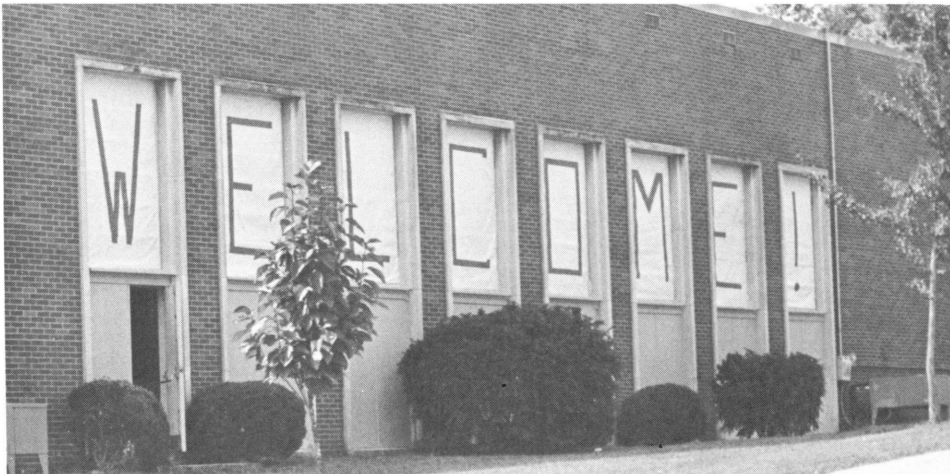

STUDENT LIFE

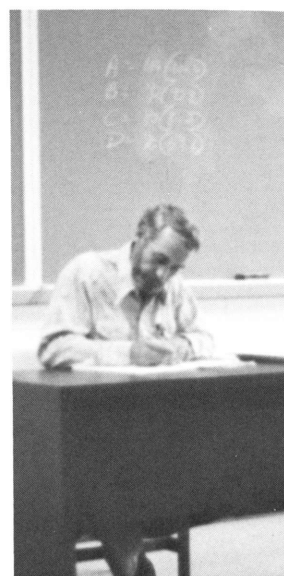

The 1980 Martinaire theme has been, "Window to the future; mirror of the past." In trying to stay with this theme, we have added a few older pictures in tis closing section. On the following pages you will find poems, quotes, and phrases which we feel express our feelings about Martin College.

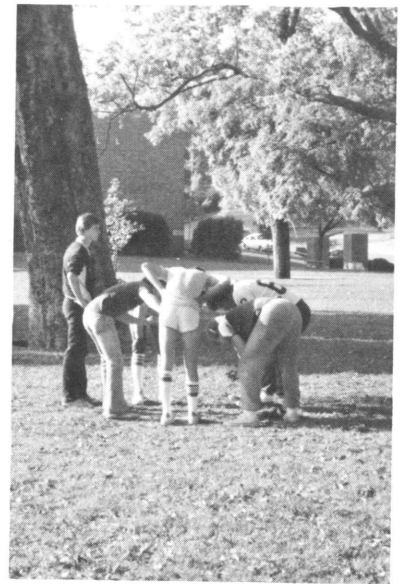

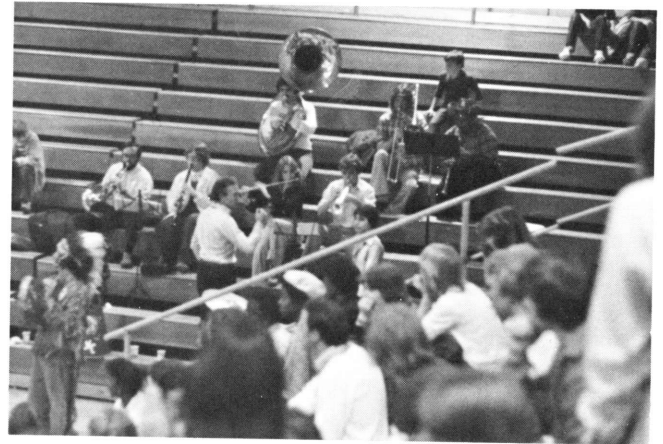

Nothing endures but change.
— Plato Cratylus

I believe that man will not merely endure; he will prevail.
— William Faulkner

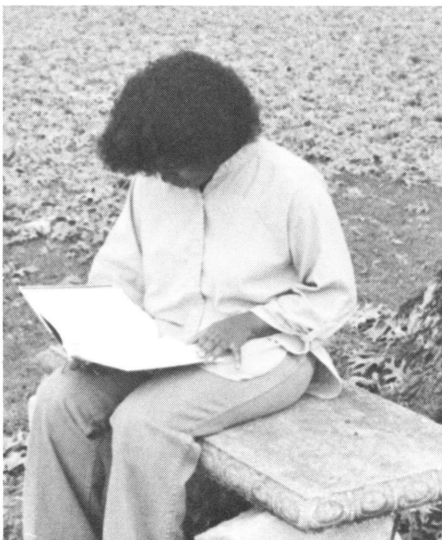

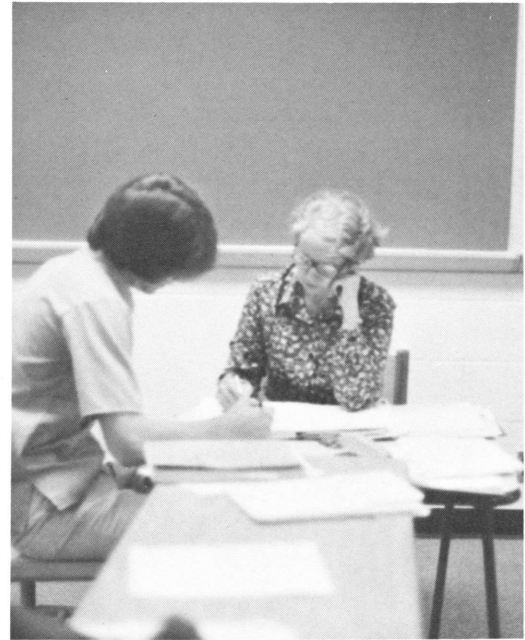

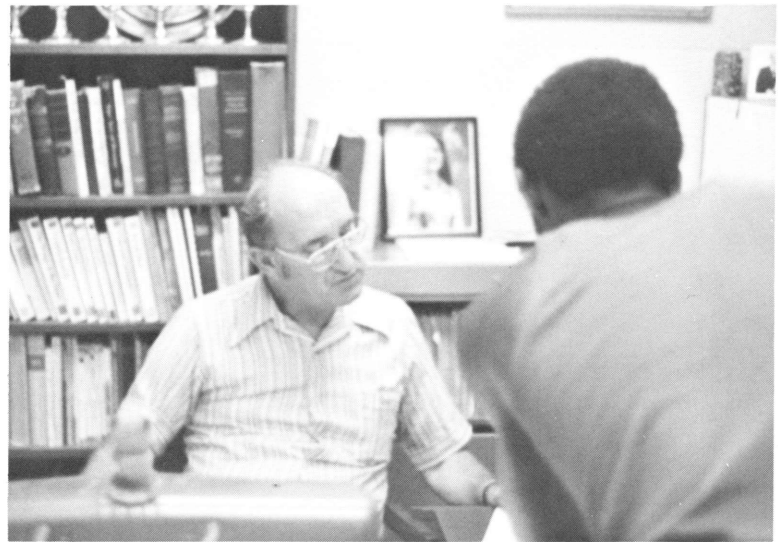

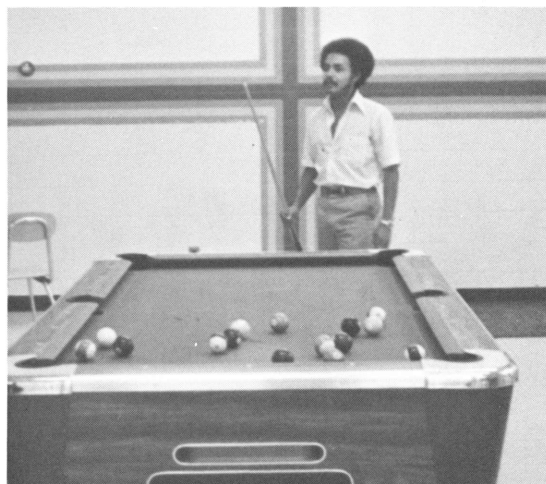

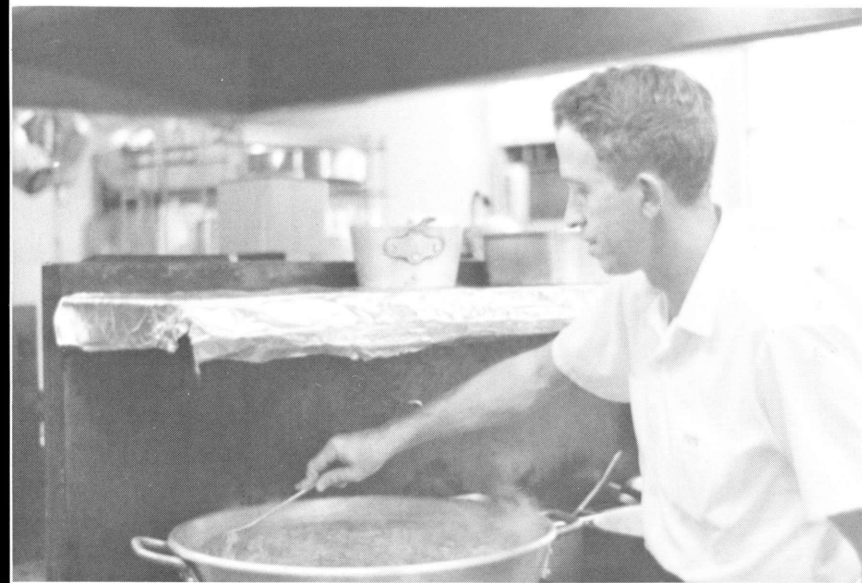

There is no disappointment we endure
One half so great as that we are to ourselves.
The Sun
Philip James Bailey

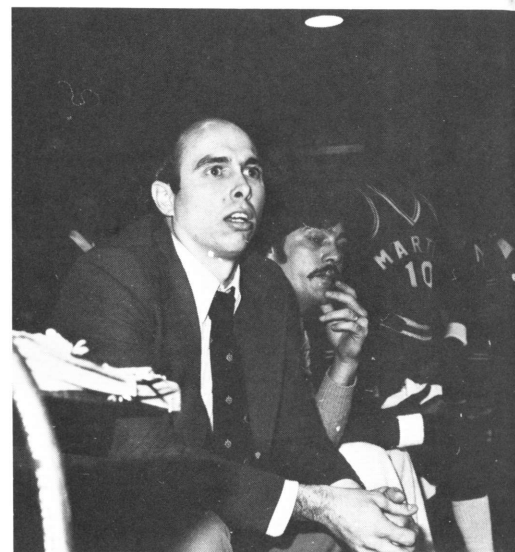

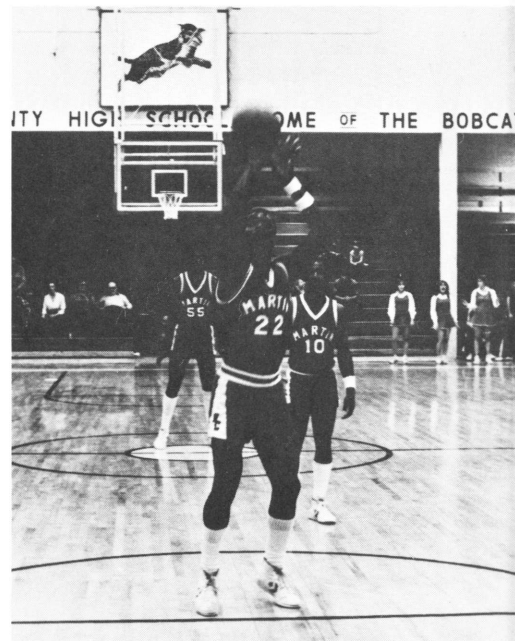

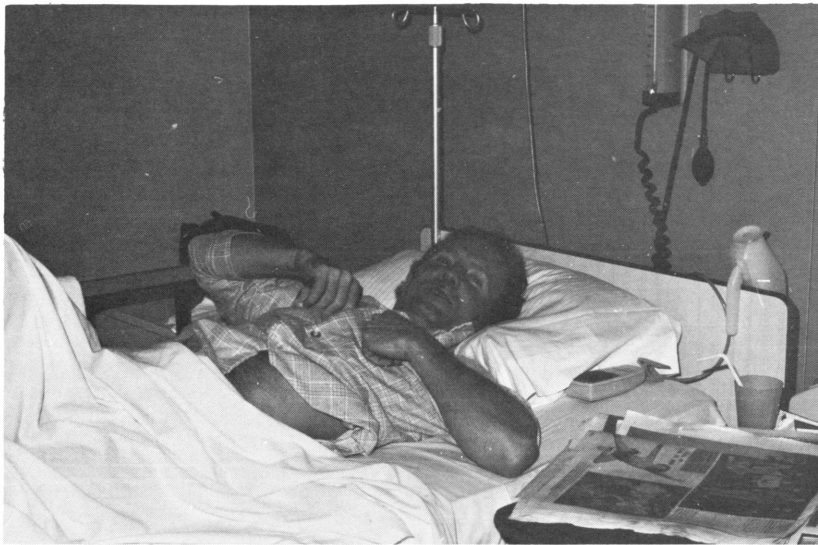

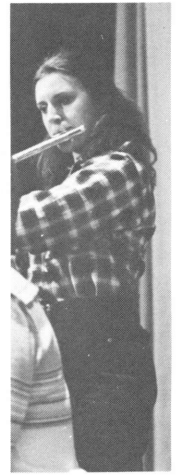

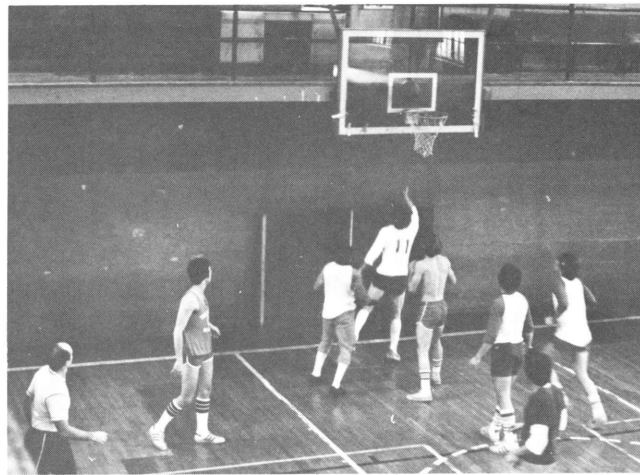

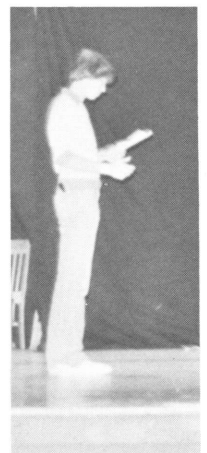

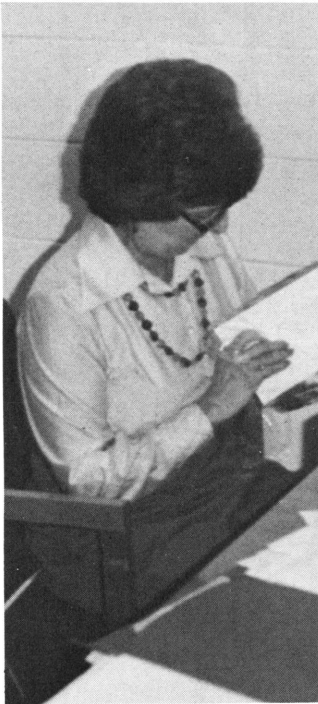

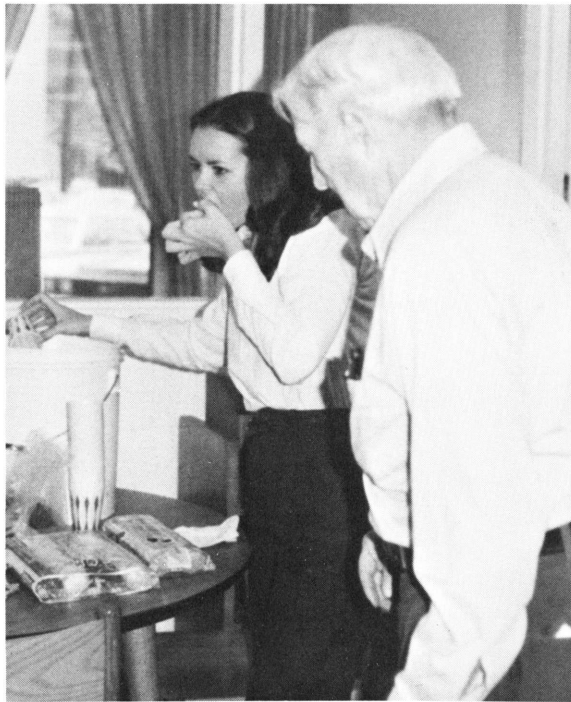

Endure and keep yourselves for days of happiness.
Vergil's Aeneid

The 1979-1980 Miss Martin is Jean Luranne Dennis of Columbia, Tennessee. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William P. Dennis. As president of Gamma Beta Phi she is a representative to the Associated Student Government and has been an elected representative on the Student Christian Association Council. This year she has been selected by the college faculty for membership in Who's Who Among Students in American Junior Colleges.
